JUDGMENT

Petitioners approached this court aggrieved by the alleged interference of the police with the activities going on in their clubs. In the interim orders, it was made clear that the petitioners so long as did not indulge in any illegal activity there shall be no interference by the police.

Accordingly, the writ petitions are disposed of in terms of the interim orders making it also clear that in case petitioners carrying on any activity which require licence under the provisions of any law, it will be open to the Police to take appropriate actions in accordance with law, in case they carry on the same without licence.

KURIAN JOSEPH, JUDGE
